

I would like go on record as being against this new proposal as I already have seen what deregulation has done for AM and FM radio...and would like to still see some local control in TV and print news. I believe with crossownership rules relaxed the differing voices we have now would slowly disappear.